

THIS WEEK

BOYNTON BEACH
Neighborhood art show

The Briny Breezes Art League holds its annual Show & Sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. today at 5000 N. Ocean Blvd. Info: 561-716-8028.

JUPITER
Piano concert today at FAU

Yoko Sato Kothari performs at 2 p.m. today at the Hibel Museum of Art on the FAU campus in Abacoa, 5353 Parkside Drive, Jupiter. “Prelude & Fugue,” a Baroque to Romantic classical piano concert. Free. Info: 561-622-5560; www.yokoskothari.com

FORT PIERCE
Pavarotti tribute today at Sunrise

A Tribute to Pavarotti, a two-hour concert featuring full orchestra, chorus and international soloists, takes the stage at 3 p.m. today at the Sunrise Theatre, 117 S. Second St. Hear the most beloved opera and Italian folk songs associated with the great tenor. $45-$55. Info: 772-461-4775; www.SunriseTheatre.com.

BOCA RATON
‘Best picture’ screening

Mizner Park Cultural Arts Center, 201 Plaza Real, hosts a free screening of “Schindler’s List” at 1:30 p.m. Monday. It is the 20th anniversary of the Academy Award winning film. Author Thomas Keneally speaks about “Fraternity Across the Lines of Race: The Case of Oskar Schindler” at 7 p.m. Tickets to the Keneally presentation are $30-$45, available at www.festivalboca.org or 866-571-2787.

DELRAY BEACH
‘Peacemakers’ at St. Paul’s

Music at St. Paul’s features the St. Paul’s Choir, the children’s choir from Pinecrest School in Boca Baton, cantorial soloist Margaret Schmitt of Temple Sinai, organist Matt Emkey of St. Ignatius Cathedral and members of Sinfonia del Ré performing at 3 p.m. today at St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, 188 S. Swinton Ave. Under the direction of Dr. Keith Paulson-Thorp, they perform Welsh composer Karl Jenkins’ “The Peacemakers.” $15 donation. Preferred seating: $20. Info: 561-276-4541.

JUPITER
Remember ‘Turn, Turn Turn’

Roger McGuinn, who wrote “Turn, Turn, Turn,” and who was the front man for the band The Byrds, is a successful solo artist with a following of loyal folk music fans and he performs at 7:30 p.m. Monday, at Maltz Jupiter Theatre, 1001 E. Indian-town Road. Tickets: $35. Info: 561-575-2223; www.jupiter-theatre.org.

Roger McGuinn

The Scene

Culture Editor: Larry Aydlette 561-820-4436 or pb_accent@pbpost.com

THE SUNDAY SPECIAL: PALM BEACH GARDENS GREENMARKET

Hints of spring at market

By Libby Volgyes

Special to The Palm Beach Post

If you can find the stand for Fratello Sole amidst the dozens and dozens of crisp white awnings that make up the Palm Beach Gardens GreenMarket, there’s a chance you won’t want to leave the booth.

You can stay for hours watching, mesmerized, as Chef Oscar Lippe works his way through a 20-pound leg of Spanish Serrano ham – precise, with short, methodical cuts.

“The Serrano ham [comes from] a white pig,” he explained to me. “What makes it so good is that the fat is intertwined with the meat. It’s marbled in because of the exercising the hog does. It is not apparent in Iberian ham and much less in prosciutto.”

He sells about 45 pounds of Serrano ham every Sunday.

In addition to the delicious ham, which shouldn’t be missed for an instant, Fratello Sole sells a variety of artisanal hormone-free, chemical free, nitrate free, pasture-raised, organic, hand-stuffed and air-dried sausages. I fell for the Cacciatorini sausage made with wine, garlic and herbs.

And then there’s the cheese.

You could spend another hour here, listening to the lullaby of names and descriptions, the countries of origin and diet of the animals that gave us such delicious cheese, the taste and the textures, enough to make you forget about the market bustling just feet away.

After taste-testing through a few delectable kinds, I left with a hunk of Pecorino Sardo ($12 a pound) and a most delicious soft sheep’s cheese, a smoked Idazabel ($30 a pound) – they told me the sheep had grazed on luscious fields filled with lavender, and I’m quite sure I could taste the springtime in this cheese. If you’re clever, you’ll leave the tent with a few

A combination of meats available at the Fratello Sole booth at the Palm Beach Gardens GreenMarket includes Cacciatorini sausage made with wine, garlic and herbs and Finocchio, a fennel sausage and Soppressata. PHOTOS CONTRIBUTED BY LIBBY VOLGYES

Guests crowd the Fratello Sole booth at the Palm Beach Gardens GreenMarket on a Sunday morning.

THE MARKET

The Palm Beach Gardens GreenMarket

The popular green market, which is now open year-round, takes place Sundays from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at 10500 N. Military Trail, Palm Beach Gardens; PBGFL.com ounces of the Serrano ham ($2 an ounce) and a couple of large hunks

The makings of a great dinner collected from the Palm Beach Gardens GreenMarket includes a Pecorino Sardo cheese and Serrano ham from Fratello Sole.

of cheese. You can find some good quality bread and some fruit and veg-

COMING TOMORROW: THE SCENE

Meet our Scene Maker:
Linda Rocker

Chef Oscar Lippe from Fratello Sole cuts a piece of Serrano ham at the Palm Beach Gardens GreenMarket.

THE VENDOR

Fratello Sole

The Palm Bay-based purveyor of cured meats, cheeses and other Italian goods visits green markets throughout eastern Florida. Fratello Sole has a booth at the Palm Beach Gardens Greenmarket on Sundays and at the Jupiter Green and Artisan Market on Friday evenings. For more information, call 321-338-0628 or visit FratelloSole.net.

etables nearby. Throw in a bottle of wine, and

I’m not sure that life gets much better than that.

THE SCENE ART TIP LAKE WORTH ART LEAGUE

Exhibit stars area artists

‘Spring Fever’ will feature all types of painting mediums.

By Laura Lordi

Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

Catch “Spring Fever” at the Lake Worth Art League in downtown Lake Worth.

The opening reception is today from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

All types of mediums, from watercolors to acrylics, will be on display from local artists, including an oil painting by Don Martinetti, an art teacher at the gallery.

The gallery is unique in that it holds art classes during open hours, so visitors can see the artists at work as they view the show. They also have presentations and demonstrations held once a month by members and visiting artists.

The Lake Worth Art League was founded in 1941 with 30 members.

“Making Friends” by art teacher Don Martinetti will be on display at the Lake Worth Art League Gallery. CONTRIBUTED

IF YOU GO

Spring Fever

When: Exhibit runs through April 6.
Hours: Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Where: 604 Lucerne Ave., Lake Worth
Admission: Free
Info: 561-586-8666; visit www.LWArtLeague.org

Exhibitions were presented in the Straight Museum (now the Children’s Room of the Lake Worth Public Library).

The Art League also presents outdoor shows, with the next one coming up April 6-7.

The “Spring Fever” exhibit runs through April 6.

llordi@pbpost.com

LAKE WORTH Lake Avenue

Downtown Lake Worth’s Lake Avenue provides a rich variety of dining, entertainment and cultural opportunities. Here are a few: Toofay’s Original Gourmet Deli, Lake Worth Playhouse, Stonzek Theatre and Clay Glass Metal Stone Gallery.

If you get thirsty, wet your palate in one of the many watering holes/restaurants, some of which feature sidewalk tables. If you’re heading for the nearby beach, Island Watersports can outfit you with shirts, sandals and even surfboards. Here’s more good news: Several times each year, downtown is the place for festivals.

Where do you want to GoGo?

Online
» Find Florida vacation deals! FloridaGoGo.com

Downtown Lake Worth, Lake Avenue, between U.S. 1 and Federal Highway, Lake Worth, 33460.

Artists fill downtown during the 2012 Lake Worth Street Painting Festival. RICHARD GRAULICH / THE PALM BEACH POST 2012