

Go! Monday

Your guide to getting out, brought to you by the staff of SouthFlorida.com

Monday

Jewish comedian Cory Kahaney, an equal-opportunity offender who often wisecracks about Republicans and Democrats during her standup, will perform Monday night at Florida Atlantic University's Wimberly Library (777 Glades Road, Boca Raton). The show is part of the 2015 Kultur Festival, eight days filled with concerts, films, author presentations, humor and book arts celebrating Jewish culture. Kahaney's 7 p.m. set, titled "Take My Advice, I'm Not Using It," is billed as a one-woman show, and the comedian has appeared on "Last Call With Carson Daly" and the "Late Show With David Letterman." The festival, which also includes performances by Klezmer Company Orchestra, will wrap on March 7. $13. 800-564-9539 or FauEvents.com.

Tuesday

Perhaps this is the year that ex-Miami Heat player Shane Battier, host of the charity karaoke party South Beach Battioke, will actually win his own competition for a change. The fourth annual Battioke, returning Tuesday to the Fillmore Miami Beach (1700 Washington Ave.), will pit Miami's Battier against a handful of celebrity guests, which in the past have included Heat cohorts Chris Bosh (2013's Battioke champ), Dwyane Wade, Udonis Haslem and actor Ken Jeong (NBC's "Community," "The Hangover" trilogy). Doors will open at 7:30 p.m. Proceeds from the fundraiser ($175 in advance, $250 at the door, includes cocktails and light bites), will benefit Battier's charity, Take Charge Foundation, which awards scholarships to at-risk high school students. TakeChargeFoundation.org and FillmoreMB.com.

PICK OF THE WEEK: FRIDAY

Elton John will perform Friday night at AmericanAirlines Arena.

Sir Rocket Man

Glittery rocket man Elton John will deliver his All the Hits Tour Friday night at AmericanAirlines Arena to support the 40th anniversary release of his double-album, "Goodbye Yellow Brick Road." The knighted singer's career-highlight album spawned a medley of hits, including "Candle in the Wind," "Bennie and the Jets," "Saturday Night's Alright for Fighting" and the title track. The set list should draw heavily from that album, and John will assume his position behind the piano with a band that includes drummer Nigel Olsson and guitarist Davey Johnstone. $36-$156 via Ticketmaster.com. 800-745-3000 or Aaarena.org.

Thursday

"The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee," the latest musical from the folks behind Boca Raton's Slow Burn Theatre, will continue its run Thursday night at Broward Center's Abdo New River Room (201 SW Fifth Ave., Fort Lauderdale). The Tony-winning Broadway production concerns a middle-school spelling bee (the actors are adults) in the Midwest that is abuzz with competitiveness, consonants, vowels and nervousness. The musical, produced by Patrick Fitzwater and Matthew Korinko, is the Slow Burn duo's last before the company kicks off a full theater season in the Amaturo Theater. Closes April 19. 7:30 p.m. $45. 954-462-0222 or BrowardCenter.org.

Saturday

Nearly a dozen food vendors country singers and hit-making headliner Joe Nichols will highlight the sixth annual WIRK Rib Round Up, set to bring down-home vibes and comfort food Saturday at the recently renamed Coral Skies Amphitheatre (601-7 Sansburys Way, West Palm Beach.). Nichols, responsible for "Brokenheartsville," "Tequila Makes Her Clothes Fall Off" and other -10 hits, will be joined by Craig Morgan, Gloriana, Thompson Square, Dustin Lynch and other Nashville-spawned up-and-comers. Gates open at noon. $33 for lawn seating, $50 in the amphitheater via WIRK.com and Ticketmaster.com.

Sunday

Sunday brings the arrival of Pulitzer Prize-winning author Richard Ford to the ninth Festival of the Arts Boca, a vibrant bill of world-class musicians and authors appearing at Mizner Park through March 15. Ford, promoting his new novel "Let Me Be Frank With You," will speak at 4 p.m. at the Mizner Park Cultural Arts Center (201 Plaza Real, Boca Raton; $25-$40). Another diversion that day is a 7 p.m. performance by the Stars of International Ballet at the Mizner Park Amphitheatre (501 Plaza Real; $25-$100), with principal dancers from the Royal Ballet, American Ballet Theatre, New York City Ballet and more. 561-368-8445 or FestivaloftheArts-Boca.org.

Wednesday

Layzie Bone, a founding member of the seminal '90s hip-hop group Bone Thugs-n-Harmony, will bring his solo tour Wednesday night to Grand Central (697 N. Miami Ave., Miami). In 2013, the Cleveland-born Layzie left his remaining Bone Thugs bandmates to focus on his solo career. His new album "Perfect Timing," scheduled for release later this year, should draw on the same blend of slow-jammed R&B and hip-hop that defined Bone Thugs-n-Harmony during the mid-1990s. Doors open at 8 p.m. $15-$45, with openers Mayday! 305-377-2277 or GrandCentralMiami.com.
